SUPER: PROFESSOR NORBERT PRESENTS: "HOW TO COLOR WITHIN THE LINES (AND THE DIRE CONSEQUENCES OF COLORING OUTSIDE THEM)"

INT. DINING ROOM - DAY

PROFESSOR CORNELIUS NORBERT is hard at work coloring in a cheap coloring book. He looks up to face the camera.

PROF. NORBERT

Oh! Hello there! My name is Professor Cornelius Norbert, and I am here today to talk to you about the importance of coloring within the lines. Coloring within the lines is a tradition passed down among many generations of families, including yours!

INT. KITCHEN - DAY

Norbert stands by a counter. He holds a piece of paper with a smiley face drawn on it.

PROF. NORBERT

Before this brilliant technique was discovered, artwork was very similar to this drawing of a smiley face- once orange juice has been spilled onto it.

He spills a glass of orange juice all over it.

PROF. NORBERT

Not very pretty, is it? Now imagine what your mother would do if she caught you pouring juice all over your artwork. Why, she'd make you go straight to bed without any supper. However, by coloring INSIDE the lines, great things are bound to happen to you!

He walks over, and we notice BILLY is lying on a rug in the background coloring a picture. His beaming MOTHER kneels next to him and hands him a cookie.

PROF. NORBERT

Just look at the praise Billy's mother is giving him! She's even giving him a cookie!

INT. COMPUTER ROOM - DAY

Norbert sits in a tidy room.

PROF. NORBERT

Now, you may feel the urge while coloring to begin moving outside the lines. You must resist this urge! The lines are provided for your benefit. Just imagine what might happen if you were to drive outside the lines of a road! Terrible things!!! Lines make your drawing neat and tidy.

We pan over to see HENRY at a desk, furrowing his brow over a coloring book. 2-3 PEERS watch him work, then burst out laughing and point at him. Henry slumps.

PROF. NORBERT

See what happens when Henry here ventures outside of the guidelines his coloring book has provided for him. All of his peers are laughing at him! I'm sure he feels horrible. Do you want this to happen to you? Of course you don't. But fear not! Henry is the keeper of a little secret, which you must not forget!

Henry pulls out a bottle of white out and corrects his mistake. His peers stop laughing and seem impressed.

PROF. NORBERT (V.O.)

If you make a mistake while coloring, and someone sees you, be sure to let them know that it was an accident, and then promptly correct it with whiteout.

INT. DINING ROOM - DAY

Norbert sits at a table, coloring in his book.

PROF. NORBERT

Well, there you have it! You now have all the knowledge you need to successfully color within the lines! I hope you've enjoyed this film as much as I have!
